Welcome, District Governor Jim Roxlo!

Bradley Sunrise Rotarians extend a warm welcome to District Governor Jim Roxlo as he makes his official visit to the club!

The Sunrise Foundation recently presented $10,000 to the folks at Special Spaces for the creation of four bedrooms for several terminally ill children. The funds were raised during the club's recent Sunrise Sunset Gala with the real-life DEA special agents Steve Murphy and Javier Pena.

Rick Smith and Chandler Burke were the latest duo to share their findings as our members continue to get to know one another better.

October 6th is PETS & Grant Training

All club presidents-elect will meet at Stone Memorial High School in Crossville October 6th for Presidents Elect Training Orientation. Also, two members of the club must be attend District. Go to the Rotary district web site at rotarydistrict6780.com for more information

Wacky 911 Calls

- A call came into 911 Emergency because two couples were going to share a hotel room and there weren't enough towels.
- A man called 911 and said: "Please connect me to Switzerland."
- A lady called 911 because of a fight going on in a parking lot. When asked to describe the combatants, she said: "I'll try. There's one man, and he's dressed like Elvis. He's kicking another man who's laying on the ground and screaming 'You ain't nothing but a hound dog.'"
- A man called and requested police call gas stations on all exits of I-95 to find out which ones were open.
- A woman called emergency to report she had seen a wild mouse in her house.
- Someone called 911 to report the parrot got out of his cage and is in a tree outside.
- A man broke up with his girlfriend and wanted police to go over to her house and report to him the owners of any cars, other than hers, in her driveway.
- A guy called to ask if they delivered dope. When the person answering told him it was the Sheriff's Department, he hung up.
- A woman called to request a police officer come to her residence to change the battery in her smoke detector. She couldn't reach it.
- A drunk called 911 to order a pizza.
- A person called to find out the number to the police station.

BSR Service Projects

Just a reminder we are working on the following service projects:

We are still collecting books for Prospect Little Library through December 13, 2018 when the students will perform for us and provide breakfast that morning.

For the month of October, we are helping TN Christian collect non-perishable food items for the Cleveland Helping Cleveland Food Drive. Please plan to bring your items to one of our Rotary meetings during the month of October.

The Caring Place still needs men's clothing items, hygiene items and linens. Please consider donating when possible.

Should you have an idea for a project or charitable organization that could use our help in the future - please let Lisa Geren know.
